

PASTOR IN BATTLE WITH "PANHANDLER"

Rev. Wilfred Phelps Rolls Down Church Steps, But Captures His Man.

The Rev. Wilfred C. Phelps, pastor of the Ocean Parkway Methodist Episcopal Church, Brooklyn, captured an alleged "panhandler" to-day after a chase from his study at Ocean Parkway and Foster Avenue.

The clergyman threw the man, later identified as Anton Jackowitz, of No. 166 Second Avenue, Brooklyn, just as they reached the top of the church steps. Both rolled down, bumping over the steps. The fight continued for several minutes. Then Patrolman Lake of the Parkville station arrived and arrested Jackowitz.

In Flatbush Court Dr. Phelps told Magistrate Folwell that Jackowitz had called at his study with a hard luck story. He said he recognized him as a man he had helped before. Jackowitz was held in $500 bail on a charge of vagrancy.

TESTIFIES FOR ABE ATTELL

Man Who Revealed Baseball Plot Believes Boxer Guiltless.

A continued hearing on the application of the Chicago authorities for the extradition of Abe Attehl, ex-squid, who is under indictment there for conspiracy in the bribing of players to throw games in the World Series of 1919 was held to-day by Justice Tierney in the Bronx Supreme Court. The only witness heard was Samuel W. Pass, an official of the People's Gas Company of Chicago, who furnished the authorities with the information that led to the uncovering of the bribery plot and the confession of a number of ballplayers that they had thrown games in the interest of gamblers. Pass said he appeared voluntarily. He did not believe Attehl was implicated in the plot.

Because of the absence of a ballplayer who was to have testified in Attehl's favor, Justice Tierney adjourned the hearing until Friday.

"WHITE WINGS" WANT JOBS.

Fifty Discharged and Ten Cases Are Set for Trial.

Fifty of the 132 white-wings who failed to show up in February when the city was snowed under and were discharged, were in court to-day when Justice Donnelly refused to allow the hearings on the application for a writ of certiorari to go on because the Corporation Counsel had not had time to prepare his papers.

Nathan A. Spoliar, who represented the petitioners, said that his clients were in need and demanded an immediate hearing so that they could be reinstated. Justice Donnelly set for cases for hearing Wednesday.

MONTH'S SAILINGS NORMAL.

May Saw 9,160 Men Recruited for Shipping Board Jobs.

Capt. Irving L. Evans, director of the recruitment bureau of the United States Shipping Board, announced to-day that in May, the first month of the present marine workers' strike, the bureau recruited 9,160 men for Shipping Board ships.

He said that in that month 342 Shipping Board vessels sailed, 95 per cent. of the number for the month of April, when there was no strike.

On Saturday and Sunday, he said, twelve Shipping Board and fifteen privately owned ships sailed, about normal.

At the headquarters of the strikers it was said they would "stand pat" at least until July 31, when the contracts of the masters, agents and pilots expire.

PREFERS RUSSIA TO JAIL.

Prisoner Arrested Second Time for Stealing Library Books.

James Hanine, twenty-eight, No. 239 West 112th Street, to-day chose to return to Russia rather than serve from six months to three years in the penitentiary when the judges of Special Sessions gave him the alternative upon his second conviction of stealing books from the Public Library at 43d Street and Fifth Avenue. His sister in Lynn, Mass., offered to pay his passage and he will be confined in the toms until a sailing takes him—Russia-bound on July 15.

When Hanine was caught last August, Dr. Felix Adler obtained a suspended sentence, but after being caught again a week ago, Dr. Adler thought the young man should be ordered back to Russia or imprisoned. A large number of books from the library and also from the libraries of Columbia and Harvard were found in his rooms.

SAYS WIFE TOLD HIM HER LOVE WAS COLD

Charge Made by Movie Man Who Is Ordered to Pay Alimony in Separation Suit.

In opposing his wife's application for alimony and counsel fee in her suit for separation Jerome Saffron, manager of the New York exchange of the Robertson-Cole Distributing Corporation, alleged that his wife told him two days after their marriage that while she did not love him then she "might cultivate a love" for him. Justice Whitaker allowed Mrs. Saffron $15 a week alimony and $75 counsel fee.

Mrs. Saffron in her complaint alleged that shortly after the marriage one of her husband's relatives asked her about the dowry that had been given the husband of her two sisters. On last Thanksgiving Day, she said, while they were dining out the defendant told her he was going to leave her and that his mother would tell the reason. The next day she learned from the mother, she alleged, that the trouble grew out of the fact that she had not given him a substantial sum when they were married.

MAGISTRATE FIGHTS FIRE.

Capt. Koehendörfer Helps Put Out Blaze at Peekskill Camp.

Capt. John Koehendörfer, who when he is not soldiering in the National Guard is a Magistrate in Queens, headed a detachment of men in fighting a fire of mysterious origin to-day in the State Camp at Peekskill.

The blaze was discovered in the brush by a sentry while the camp was still asleep. His alarm brought the men tumbling out. By hard work the building where the targets are stored was saved, although it was slightly damaged. Col. Edward McLeer announced to-day that the 108th Infantry (the 23d Regiment of Brooklyn) will leave for home next Saturday and the 63th of Manhattan will come in for a two weeks' stay.

NO DECISION IN PLATT CASE.

Chauffeur's Wife Accused of Physicist's Wife of Alienating Affections.

The motion of Mrs. May Weidenbach for $50 a week alimony and $400 counsel fee in her separation suit against Hugo Weidenbach, a chauffeur, and also her suit for $20,000 damages against Mrs. Edith Tindale Platt, a rich Astoria resident, wife of Dr. Clarence N. Platt, prominent Long Island physician, for alienating Hugo's affections came to-day before Justice Gannon in the Queens County Supreme Court.

Mrs. Weidenbach says her husband makes $3,500 yearly from wages as chauffeur and revenue from several public garages in which he is interested. Justice Gannon reserved decision. On the other motion, the court gave Mrs. Platt, who now lives with relatives in Rahway, until Thursday to prove she had never been served with papers.

Disabled Veterans Have City Official to Help Them.

Assistant Corporation Counsel Edward P. Bennett, a veteran of the Fordham Ambulance unit, which was the French war cross, has been assigned to aid men disabled in service in obtaining the relief due from the Federal Government. The office will be in Room 1211, Municipal Building. Every possible assistance will be given by the city without cost to the former service men.
